Seems like forever since this website began. This is newsletter 100, which means there are still lots of free stained glass patterns to make.... One a month alone would keep someone busy. , just making them keeps me busy (copying and pasting the pictures and the URLs). It is actually astounding to me that the site has been accepted, and new individuals find it every day, for which I am grateful. I enjoy your comments and ideas, and even though sometimes I wonder whether the custom designs will sell, I am always surprised. So this is one reason that I can keep custom pattern prices very low.

Since I also enjoy making counted cross stitch patterns and peyote stitch beading diagrams, please tell your friends about these websites (especially <http://memory-beads.com>)

The free pattern for this month comprises the numerals for 100, which you can make for your favorite centigenarian, or if you house happens so have these numerals, for a transom. I can customize (three numerals only) in this font.... which is a pretty cool font, if you ask.

Making stained glass panels to give away can be a great way to increase your immune system. Giving is indeed more beneficial than receiving. I think my life has been blessed more since I began giving away my time and ideas (this website and the others I manage) than I could ever have imagined. I try to include at least one freebie with every order.
