Happy Thanksgiving

Leaves are turning, air is chill, wind is brisk, evenings are dark, mornings are cold, and flowers are fading. The sure sign that a serious frost is on the way BUT!! so are the holidays.

Some of my best and worst memories are centered around the fall holidays. Anticipation, disappointment, hugs from loved ones, loved ones lost, worries about heating bills, holiday expenses, and losing sight of what's really important, love, faith, hope, joy, sharing, and togetherness. All in all its a serious time of the year for most of us, providing time to reflect and come to grips with the fact that we are not in a dress rehearsal, this IT.

new patterns

New patterns this month, including those which finish up the series called Stations of Christ, which were a special order. These stepping stone mosaic patterns can be turned easily into stained glass patterns, or quilt applique patterns....just ask me. The spiritual patterns are free to clergy and those who make them for their places of worship...!

Other new patterns are spread out through the entire site, a few here and there, some under categories of TENNIS, NURSERY, FLOWERS and FRUITS, and PARABLES .

Don't forget to ask for custom patterns, as this is something that I relish doing for anyone who asks. It is at once both enriching, and challenging, and it builds new e-friendships. Blessings.....

PS Below is an astoundingly good offer (LOL). What I want to know is how you found the site (the search words you used on google) or what site links you used to navigate to <http://PDQpatterns.com>

These cross stitch patterns remind me that I should get started on the Christmas tree ornaments for my two precious grandsons, or I won't have them stitched 'till next winter. There is still time for you to ask for a custom pattern with an initial for your spouse, child or grandchild.
