LET IT SNOW, LET IT SNOW LET IT SNOW, and SNOW and SLEET, and RAIN and freeze - etc

Hi all. We are totally snowed in here in southern Ohio, as I suspect many of you are also. Kids are off school, and some businesses are closed. Snow happens!!! Sleet happens!!! Rain and freezing roads happen!!!. I marvel that we are always still unprepared.

There are a few brave souls that are out there (like the anchor men & women on the Nightly News ha! ha!) without scarves, and hats, (vanity, vanity, all is vanity – words straight out of Ecclesiastes) but most individuals are all bundled up and managing it OK. I should be sending you- all a freebie pattern with snowflakes, but I have not made any new ones this year, and besides that, I am anticipating Valentines day, and Easter, Passover and the Chinese New Year (not in that order). If someone out there has a great picture of a Chinese New Year celebration (with a cool dragon), please send it, and I will do my best to make a great stained glass pattern from it.

I walked to work this week, just to avoid all the hazards of driving, and to get some exercise, since the tennis courts are under a half foot of snow !!! and just marveled at the trees and bushes with their “glass” coverings. The dogwood buds are encased in half inch “ice marbles” and the blown flowers from last year are solid 1 inch spheres that reflect the sun (when it peeks out of the clouds). Icicles hang every half inch from the branches several inches down, and whole trees have bent close to the ground. Nature is an awesome and powerful force. Its an amazing event, – life, and humans, and their existence on this planet, a totally awesome and amazing event.
