finding time ...making time

Great scott!!... hmm wonder where that saying came from? At any rate, when the first hostas in my garden send up their racemes, I begin to panic. Here it is, SUMMER!!! and in a few days the nights will begin their trek to longer and longer and we will be back into fall and winter. SPRING is fleeting, SUMMER is fleeting, yikes!! LIFE is fleeting. No wonder so many of our favorite sayings deal with the fact that time is not going to hang around. So like so many others do... I say to myself.....

As if you could kill time without injuring eternity. Thoreau
 Time is what we want most..but what we use worst. Penn
 The present is a point just past. Russell
 You may delay but time will not. Franklin
 You will never find time for anything, if you want time you must make it. Bixton
 Whether it's the best of times or the worst of times, it's the only time we've got. Buchwald
 He who gains time gains everything. Disraeli
 The bad news is, time flies, the good news is, you are the pilot. Altshuler
 There is more to life than increasing its speed. Ghandi
 Do not confuse motion with progress. Montapert
 Live each day as if it be your best. Aurelius (AD 140) Yep, we've been thinking about time since the beginning of time!
 Never leave till tomorrow what you can do today. Franklin
 Nothing is a waste of time if you use the experience wisely. Rodin

I made this letter longer than usual for lack of time to make it shorter. Pascal

And so, per this last quote, this is a short newsletter, so as not to use up your time, and mine (LOL), and I hope you are "off" to make something wonderful with beads, cross stitch, or stained glass. Give someone a great gift made with your hands (that helps make time stand still). Thanks, as always, for your business this month, and be happy. mm
